PARKER.

Kind Words of Cheer From Our Parker Correspondent.

Editor Democrat.

A heavy rain fell here this morning, which will insure a top crop of cotton.

As we have failed on our oat crop let us act wisely and cribb our corn at home. Let us make a home market and no longer have our corn cribbs in Kansas and our smoke houses in Chiaago.

The free silver question has about subsided— no gold bugs down here—but let us all bug up and be true to our country as the dear old Democrat has done.

May you and yours always prosper in behalf of grand old Texas.

Let each and every citizen stand at his post with his weapons drawn ready to fight the battle of 1896. Let us do our duty as THE DEMOCRAT has done, then the Star Spangled Banner will triumphantly wave over grand old America, then we will hear the glad tidings of joy going up from all over the land.

We have fought a good fight. We have kept our pledge.

May the choice blessing of success crown THE DEMOCRAT.

Parker, Sept. 7. UNCLE BUD.

COL. R. D. ALLISON.

This distinguished old veteran of four score and five was surprised last Saturday upon receipt of the following note:

"McKinney, Tex., Sept. 6. '95.

Col. R. D. Allison, McKinney, Tex.

Dear Sir,—On the 19th and 20th of September the battle field of Chicamauga will be dedicated.

"It was your duty after the battle was over to superintend the collection of captured property.

"It had been yours to serve our country with honor in the war with Mexico.

"Your old comrades and friends who believe in honoring one who loved his land well enough to risk his life for it should be honored and that it is well for the ex-confederates to smooth the declining years of our comrades, desire to present this testimonial. May your next birthday (85th) be a pleasant one and your future years be full of peace as your past has been of honor.

Col. Allison was born Sept. 25, 1810, and his long career has been an active one filled with honors both civil and military.

He raised the first cavalry company in Tennessee for service in the Mexican war and was made lieutenant colonel of the regiment in July, 1846, serving throughout the war with honor and distinction.

At the breaking out of the civil war he raised the 24th Tennessee infantry, of which he was made colonel by acclamation. In 1863 he raised the 20th Tennessee cavalry and was made its colonel, serving as such throughout the remainder of the war. He followed Gen. Sherman's army in its victorious march through the Carolinas and Georgia, surrendering at Greensboro, N. C., at close of the war.

As intimated in the above note, Col. Allison was put in command of the field of Chicamauga after that famous battle had been fought and confederate victory won and gathered up 24,700 small arms—infantry and cavalry—besides 57 pieces of artillery, an immense amount of ammunition and other property.

This work of cleaning up the battle field was accomplished under great difficulties. The stench arising from the putrifying bodies of dead soldiers and carcasses of dead horses was almost beyond endurance, so that at the end of the fifteen or twenty days required in doing the work the colonel had only three or four men besides himself able for duty.

But, as before stated, Colonel Allison's honors have not all been military by any means. He has many times, in the walks of peace, been accorded distinctions by his fellow countrymen. For five or six terms he served them faithfully in the legislature of Tennessee, even before the dark days of secession.

In 1866 he came to Texas, settling here in Collin county, where he has resided continuously ever since. Col. Allison has served three terms in the legislature of his adopted state and two terms in its state senate. Personally he is a hale old gentleman of commanding presence, tall, and though four score and five years rest upon his shoulders, he walks almost as erect as ever and gives promise of adding several more years to his already ripe old age.

The colonel anticipates his coming trip to Chicamauga with much pleasure and speaks in feeling terms of his comrades who have so kindly remembered him.

To The Democrat:

Miss Rosie Barnett, who has been on the sick list, is up.

Mrs. Houck and daughter, are sick with slow fever.

The sound of the carpenter's saw and hammer can be heard, which is a good indication that Blue Ridge is still on the boom.

We are glad to learn that A. J. Calloway, youngest son of W. J. Colloway, who moved to the I. T. last fall, is improving from a serious accident which happened to him.

The trustees have employed Prof. C. F. Trotter and brother and one lady to teach our next term of school.

Six families arrived in this part of the county this week from Tennessee. They came by land.

Blue Ridge cornet band, which hasn't been practing for a few weeks on account of the protracted meetings, will meet on their regular nights, beginning next week.

We think that the pleasant shower which fell this morning will be a benefit to health.

Quite a crowd was in town Saturday, it being court day.

We learn that we are to have a silver smith shop in town soon.

W. A. Moyers still continues to lock horns with the free silver men when he is not squirrel hunting. HILL.

THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH.

Its First Visit to McKinney and in Its Entirety.

"I come," said Editor Chas. Stow, "as the special representative of Mr. J. A. Bailey, managing proprietor of the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth, to advise you that it would make its first appearance in McKinney Thursday, Oct. 17, and in his name to emphatically assure you that the whole show will be forthcoming, just as huge, splendid and diversified as elsewhere given.

"Among the chief attractions will be found a great Ethnological Congress of Earth's strangest human beings. With their weapons of war and the chase, domestic utensils, boats, costumes, wives and children, these groups of singular and savage people present one of the grandest, most picturesque, and instructive exhibitions it is possible to conceive of. Among them are fierce Turks. Armenians, Maras, Caryjones, Apaches, Mojaves, Navajoes, Moquis, Cliff Dwellers, Algerians, Singhalese, Nudians, Polynesians, Cannibals, Idolators, Buddhists, Heathens and many others. So remarkable a collection was never before seen. Each race or group is shown engaged in occupations the same as when in their own native countries. These strange and savage races are shown in the new menagerie pavilion, where also is the only living gorilla in captivity—the famous Joeanna—so nearly allied to mankind as to set us to wondering where the animal begins and human being ends. Besides these again are the cages of wild beasts, birds, reptiles, the two herds of elephants, twenty-four in all, camels and the lot of queer quadrupeds and other living curiosities. And then there are those ludicrously successful novelties, the only lady clown, the only lady ringmaster, and Trilby on horseback; besides a water carnival in a miniature lake, presenting tremendous high dives and and expert and comic innovations.

"The performances in the three rings, on the two stages, on the grand hippodrome course in the steel barred arena and in mid-air, are the very best the whole world can afford, and more numerous and excellent than those of all other shows combined. The free street parade is a most stupendous and magnificent sensation. There are two things the Barnum & Bailey Show does not do; it never exhibits on the Sabbath, and it never advertises anything it does not exhibit. There is still another thing worthy of special notice and that is that the price of admission to all will be but 50 cents."

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

An Unfortunate Young Man Rescued by His Fair Companion.

Plano, Collin Co., Tex., Sept. 9.—W. T. Ballard, a young man, was returning from Liberty church last night in a buggy with Miss Polly Andrews, and when about eight miles west of Plano the horse he was driving was frightened by some party on horse-back, causing Mr. Ballard's horse to run away. The hub of the wheel struck the corner post of the railing on the bridge that spans White Rock creek, throwing Mr. Ballard over the railing of the bridge to the hard white rock bottom of the creek, a distance of twenty-five feet. He sustained a compound fracture of the thigh bone, which the attending physician says may cause his leg to be amputated. Miss Andrews was thrown out of the buggy against the railing, receiving only slight bruises.

Miss Andrews proved herself a heroine by hurrying to the rescue of her companion at the bottom of the creek, who was lying in the water, and would have drowned in a few minutes had she not pulled him out.

Three more couples in buggies were just ahead of Mr. Ballard and the horses they were driving became scared and and unmanageable. Jesse McIlvain's buggy was run into, on the bridge and he was thrown out of the buggy, only being slightly bruised. Two of the buggies were badly broken up.

THE indication is that Kentucky democracy is getting into the soup.

A NATIONAL democratic free silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 platform is yet to be found.

IT is reported that corn is being burned for fuel in Kansas. We must have cheap transportation!

THE slaughter of human beings continues in Armenia. It is about time for all civilized nations to unite in putting a stop to these atrocities.

CYCLONE Davis' proposition to unite with free silver democrats is superlatively foolish. At least, it looks that way to the hard working middle-of-the-road populist.

ABOUT the most amusing thing we know of if to hear Bill Shaw, of Dallas, prating about political honesty. Bill's cranium is just about as full of this article as the Texas treasury is of cash.

DIAL, Dutton and the pops were the mighty forces that carried prohibition in Hunt county.—Greenville Headlight.

Yet, we can scarcely pick up a democratic exchange like yours that does not inform us of the rapid decline of the populist party. May Heaven have mercy on you political orphans.

DURING a talk with a local democratic editor and a local politician of the same party, both these gentlemen, in discussing Kearby's speech at the court house, declared that the government ownership of railroads question was one of the paramount issues and that it would win as it should.

R. M. Page of Fort Worth died Tuesday evening last. The deceased lived in McKinney several years ago, and was engaged in the lumber business. About a year ago he shot and killed A. B. Smith, cashier of the Merchants' Nat'l. bank, of Fort Worth. He was acquitted. He was a successful business man but very unpopular.

THINK of it! Rodman Wanamaker, son of ex-postmaster general Wanamaker, recently gave a $20,000 dinner in Paris, France, to some friends, while his own nation is filled with tramps. Wanamaker was placed in Harrison's cabinet because of his millions and his liberal donations to the campaign fund. Let patriots arouse and rebuke such violations of democratic simplicity.

SOCIAL.

The following unique invitations are out for a birthday party to be given at the beautiful residence of Mr. E. W. Morton on College street, in honor of his little daughter.

"Saturday, the fourteenth of September,
I'll be twelve, the date remember,
Come and have your fortune told
By a Gypsy, wise and old.
Won't we have a jolly time
From eight o'clock till any time?
BLANCHE MORTON.
McKinney, Texas, 1895."

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stiff entertained Tuesday evening, the occasion marking the third happy birthday of their little daughter, Claude. The little friends came trouping in about 4:30 o'clock and passed the time from then until seven in unalloyed enjoyment. Dainty cakes, cream and fruits were served, the little hostess showing by her winsome graces in entertaining, that she will some day be one of society's most favored daughters. Those present were: Misses Anna Bell and Alma Herndon, Fannie Wilmeth, Irene Johnson, Midge Ferguson, Paddy Hughes, Fay Stouffer, and Masters Payton Adams and Jack Stiff.

Stricken With Paralysis.

While leading in prayer at the morning service of the Baptist revival now in progress in this city, J. M. Graves of Melissa was stricken with paralysis yesterday, Wednesday, and has been in a precarious condition ever since. His right side seems to be totally paralyzed and he sank into unconsciousness, from which he had not rallied when friends took him aboard the north-bound 8:15 train last night for his home in Melissa.

Mr. Graves is one of the best known and oldest citizens of Collin county and it is with sorrow that we record his sad and sudden affliction.

IN MEMORIUM.

Hall of Empire lodge, 68, I. O. O. F.

Whereas, it has pleased an all-wise God to take from our midst our esteemed and noble brother, R. S. Chandler, one upon whom his neighbors and fellow citizens bestowed honor and trusts—one whom we all loved and respected, as a friend and genial companion; an upright, honorable christian gentleman and a true Odd Fellow.

Therefore be it resolved, That while we bow in submission to him who doeth all things well and who always careth for his people, we can but feel that our lodge has been bereaved of one of its most ardent members, and with deep and unfeigned sorrow we mourn his death and absence from amongst us, and do sadly pay tribute to his memory by this record.

Resolved, That words are insufficient to give full expression to our feelings of deepest sympathy and consolation to the bereaved family of our departed brother. But silent tears that cannot be oppressed will serve as mystic tokens of the sorrow that pervades our broken circle. May God watch over and protect the widow and fatherless children and bestow upon them his abundant compassion and may the link that has here been broken, become welded again in that grand lodge above, where parting shall be no more.

Resolved, That as a token of respect and love, our lodge be draped in mourning and all its members wear the usual badge of respect and grief for thirty days. And that there be set apart in the journals and record of this lodge a memorial page upon which these resolutions shall be inscribed.

Resolved, That our city papers be requested to publish these resolutions, and that a copy thereof be transmitted to our deceased brother's family.

IN the last issue of THE DEMOCRAT appeared, on the local page, an item regarding local option in McKinney. This article was penciled by our local reporter as a news item, but has been criticised by some of our anti friends as an editorial comment, doing an injustice to Hon. P. B. Muse of Sherman. We wish to state by way of explanation that the editor of THE DEMOCRAT never saw the article until after THE DEMOCRAT was issued last week. Mr. Wilson got his information by attending the prohibition meeting here a few evenings before said article appeared and he only intended to state the charges of the prohibition meeting and its circular as an item of news. Any language that seems to reflect upon the honor of Judge P. B. Muse or any other citizen was never contemplated by the editor. On the contrary, regarding Mr. Muse, we hereby state that we have always had the kindest feeling for Judge Muse. We have always regarded him, notwithstanding political differences, as an honest, broad minded citizen.

The cow boy preacher is conducting a series of meetings under a brush arbor at Viney Grove seven miles east of McKinney.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church in this city is still in progress and is attracting large congregations. Rev. Pender is a preacher of power and his fervent sermons are making inroads in "the fields of sin" in McKinney. Several conversions and joiners have been recorded. Last night two were baptised and two joined. There will be an old folks to-morrow (Friday) morning.

Eld. F M. Locke, a blind Christian preacher will preach at the Fairfield school house in the north part of McKinney next Sunday evening immediately after the Sunday school. Subject, "Religion Makes Us Free from Sin." Everybody invited.

While Jordon Miller and his wife were gathering plums at their home on the old Jesse Stiff homestead, 8 miles north-east of McKinney, Monday, Mr. Miller was suddenly stricken with congestion of the brain and now lies in a precarious condition, with chances of recovery against him.

IT has leaked out that Commissioner Reagan and Col. Hogg are dealing in Colorado silver mine stocks. We now understand about the sickness of Col. Hogg's wife during the recent Fort Worth meeting. Hogg went to Colorado to look after his mining interest. From the way Hogg is dealing in railroads and mines it seems that he is trying to develop into a millionaire. Hogg once said that "The commune is the legitimate child of the cormorant."

REAGAN stands quietly under the shade of the tree waiting for the gubernatorial lightening to strike him.

PRINCETON.

Historical Sketch, Location, Enterprises, Etc.

Crisp News Items by The Democrat's Reporter.

Princeton, Tex., Sept., 10, '95.
Editor Democrat:

About seven years ago a small store house was built and stocked with general merchandise on the East Line railroad, midway between McKinney and Farmersville—eight miles from either—in the Longneck school district. A year or so later another general merchandise business was established, and the railroad seeing an opening for shipping boisd'arc and wood, furnished a switch.

The timber around the switch on the north was cut away, the land surveyed and a town plot laid off, a post office established and Princeton sprang into existence.

Population of the surrounding country increased and the necessity of a greater volume of business was apparent and the two merchants enlarged their buildings and stock of goods until now the people of this district can be supplied with anything they need in the way of general merchandise.

Besides the two stores Princeton has a gin, blacksmith shop and eight residences.

Last season, J. A. Barnett, the most progressive and successful gin man of the county, built a splendid gin house here, equipped with all of the latest improved full Munger patent machinery—and a grist mill—and placed Mr. R. A. Bishop as manager.

Owing to the shortness of the cotton crop, the returns were not very satisfactory. With a more extended acquaintance and the better prospect for cotton, we predict for him, this season, a larger patronage and greater success.

R. A. Bishop built a good blacksmith shop in the spring, and employed D. R. McGhee as workman.

Dr. T. G. Boorman, physician and surgeon has his sign in front of Alma Wilson's store.

Long Neck school house, a substantial building, is situated a half mile from the railroad. The enrollment for the next scholastic term numbers one hundred and twenty. Mr. John Doyl has been employed to teach the term beginning about November 1.

Willard Howerton, the able instructor, for the past two years of Viney Grove district, successfully taught the summer school of two months at this place. Owing to the great amount of sickness, the attendance was small during the whole time.

A great deal of malarial sickness, owing to the protracted spring rains, followed by intense heat and drouth.

The doctors have been steadily employed during the last two months.

A good rain, refreshed all vegetation and animal life last Saturday morning and increased the water supply.

Crop prospects are much better than were expected two months ago. At one time the rains, overflows and boll worms seemed destined to destroy the cotton—and the out-look for easier times and prosperity seemed gloomy in the extreme. However the "silver lining" to the cloud seems to have been turned upon us and every one now feels hopeful.

The average yield will be somewhere near a half bale in this section, and if prices continue good, our farmers can see their way clearer.

Corn is good and cheap—so cheap that those who never raise their meat, will begin feeding a few hogs rather than sell, and perhaps in this way will be forced to become educated in home productions of everthing to eat.

There are about two hundred cords of wood stocked along the main passway of our village belonging to R. L. Waddill of McKinney. At the present rapid rate of loading and shipping—two to five cars a week, it will soon be dispensed with, to the delight of every one here.

Miss Mary E. Anderson of Kentucky is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. G. Stearns.

Mr and Mrs. Frank Smith spent Sunday in McKinney.

Elder R. C. Horn will come with his tent sometime this month and conduct a protracted meeting.

Miss Jennie Warden visited her sister, Mrs. Joe Henry last week.

KEARBY SPEAKING.

One of the best populist speeches ever delivered in McKinney was attentively listened to at the court house last Saturday evening. Hon. Jerome C. Kearby of Dallas was the speaker. The crowd was good sized and contained many democrats who were eager to hear the distinguished populist standard bearer of the sixth district and who formerly studied law in McKinney under Judge Waddill in the year 1867. Heavy rains Saturday morning prevented a full house. The speech was replete with brilliant thoughts and uncontrovertable facts. His defense of the financial planks of the populist party platform was the most able we have ever had the pleasure of listening to. His explanation of the government ownership of railroad question opened the eyes of many democrats present who could not help ejaculating "that's so," "he is exactly right," etc.

Altogether Jerome C. Kearby is equal to the splendid reputation he bears for learning and it is no longer a wonder to us that he made such a proud race for congressional honors in the sixth district. As a result of his speech here several with whom we meet have declared that hereafter they will vote the populist ticket. We hope to greet Hon. J. C. Kearby in McKinney at some future time under more favorable conditions.

Extra low prices will be made on wall paper and paints for the next 30 days at the City Drug Store.

BLOWN INTO ETERNITY.

On last Saturday Will Cooper, a negro boy aged 13, met a horrible death near Vineland, 7 miles west of McKinney, on the place of J. J. Smith.

Mr. Smith and the boy were cleaning out a well. They had put in a blast which did not go off. After waiting some time the boy descended into the well but just before reaching the bottom the blast went off, mangling him in a terrible manner. Death was instantaneous.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Aron returned from the East Monday.

We would like to look into the pleasant face of some one who has never had any derangement of the digestive organs. We see the drawn and unhappy faces of dyspeptics in every walk of life. It is our national disease and nearly all complaints spring from this source. Remove the stomach difficulty and the work is done.

Dyspeptics and pale, thin people are literally starving to death because they don't digest their food. Consumption never developes in people of robust and normal digestion. Correct the wasting and loss of flesh and we cure the disease. Do this with food.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial contains already digested food and is a digester of food at the same time. Its effects are felt at once. Get a pamphlet of your druggist and learn about it.

Laxol is Castor Oil made as sweet as honey by a new process. Children like it.

MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P. P. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,
